Oliveira do Hospital Schist Walking Trail

Walk direction: anticlockwise

This circular trail starts in Jardim Dr. Oliveira Mano (public garden), we cross the garden, climb a few steps and face the Santa Ana chapel. Turning left and then right we are at the main paved road. After the paved roads we leave towards the agricultural fields and go in direction of the Anta do Pinheiro (dolmen). A little further on we turn right onto a dirt road that will take us to the anthropomorphic graves of Gorgulão. We follow the trail and get to Senhora da Luz, where we can see the existence chapel that has the same name. Along cobble stone streets we arrive to Bobadela, a rich Roman heritage site, with the Roman ampitheater and it's ruins and where we can notoriously see the arch several objects of the time. The trail leaves Bobadela and goes towards São Sebastião chapel. From here the trail goes on a dirt road till we find a paved road. At the roundabout the trail goes straight to the center of Oliveira do Hospital where the House Museum of the Foundation of Dona Maria Vasconcelos Cabral, the Ferreiros chapel and the classified linden tree can be found. This are some of the best points of interest on the trail.
